

Memorandum

New York City Transit

Date September 13, 2017
To Veronique Hakim, Managing Director
From Darryl Irick, Acting President, NYC Transit
Re New York State Comptroller Report #2016-S-91 Staten Island Railway – Safety at Stations: 90 Day Response

In response to the requirements of Section 170 of the Executive Law to respond 90 days after receipt of the above-referenced audit report from the State Comptroller, we hereby provide you with steps taken by MTA New York City Transit to implement the recommendations outlined in the audit report.

The stated purpose of the audit was to determine whether the Staten Island Railway has taken appropriate steps to address safety-related issues at all of its train stations, including determining if “Customer Assistance Intercoms” are operational and accessible to all.

Comptroller Recommendation 1: Develop written policies and procedures pertaining to SIR's response to safety-related incidents at the stations.

NYCT Response: Written procedures have been developed, drafted, and implemented.

Comptroller Recommendation #2: Establish a formal timeline for the complete activation of the CAI System

NYCT Response: All CAIs are active and available for public usage.
